

2020 Virtual Week of Caring

Thursday: Commit to Volunteering

Did you know the current value of a volunteer hour is $25.43? That value shows the amazing, and crucial impact that volunteers can have on nonprofit organizations and communities as a whole. The caring power of volunteers allow many of our local organizations to operate on limited budgets, run fundraisers with limited staff, expand their local impact, and much more.

Today, your mission is to simply commit to becoming an active volunteer! It can be any small step towards learning more about how you can help!

- Register on our FREE online volunteer platform
- Contact a United Way partner to volunteer
- Contact local schools, churches, chambers, etc.
- Set up a monthly volunteer goal
